

Adrian Goldsworthy studied at Oxford, where his doctoral thesis examined the Roman army. He went on to become an acclaimed historian of Ancient Rome. He is the author of numerous works of non fiction, including Caesar, Pax Romana, Hadrian's Wall and Philip and Alexander. He is also the author of the Vindolanda series, set in Roman Britain, which introduced readers to centurion Flavius Ferox.

PRAISE FOR THE
VINDOLANDA SERIES

‘No one knows the Roman army better than Adrian Goldsworthy, and no one writes more convincing Roman fiction.’

HARRY SIDEBOTTOM

‘An authentic, enjoyable read.’

THE TIMES

‘Gritty and realistic... Goldsworthy’s characters are authentically ancient and his descriptions of Roman Britain ring true.’

AD 105: DACIA

The Dacian kingdom and Rome are at peace, but no one thinks that it will last. Sent to command an isolated fort beyond the Danube, centurion Flavius Ferox can sense that war is coming, but also knows that enemies may be closer to home.

Many of the Brigantes under his command are former rebels and convicts, as likely to kill him as obey an order. And then there is Hadrian, the emperor’s cousin, and a man with plans of his own...

Gritty, gripping and profoundly authentic, The Fort is the first book in a brand new trilogy set in the Roman empire from bestselling historian Adrian Goldsworthy.
